Frequently Asked Questions

What is City on a Hill?

Located in the heart of one of America's poorest and most segregated cities, City on a Hill is a faith-based nonprofit organization that works as a catalyst to bring transformation to individuals, families and neighborhoods in the central city of Milwaukee. Our mission is simple:

Save the Children. Reach the Parents. Transform the City.

Why Milwaukee?

Located in the heart of the Midwest and off the shore of Lake Michigan, Milwaukee is a vibrant city known for its countless festivals, baseball team and rich German heritage. However, unknown to many, Milwaukee is listed as America's most segregated city and has been ranked in the top 10 of America's poorest cities for the past eight years. Nearly half of the children in Milwaukee (46.1%) are living below the poverty line. 53% of African American males living in Milwaukee are unemployed. The zip code in which City on a Hill is located in has a higher infant mortality rate than that of Botswana and the highest in the nation. Without question, Milwaukee is a city in need of transformation.

What are you looking for?

We are looking for individuals that possess a growing relationship with Christ and a desire to learn. Interns must have a teachable personality and be willing to step outside of their comfort zones when necessary. Flexibility, humility and servant leadership are central to a successful internship.

What will I do?

All Interns are involved in various aspects of our ministry here at City on a Hill. This includes leading volunteers, impacting the lives of ministry participants, building relationships with children and youth in our neighborhood and helping coordinate weekly programming.

We have three distinct internship tracks that are as follows:
